

1. Rescheduling cannabis as a schedule I controlled substance to a schedule III controlled substance on the federal Controlled Substances Act
  - a. Overview of the federal scheduling process (Kline)
  - b. Potential effects to Nevada cannabis industry
    - i. Banking (Kline and Britten)
    - ii. Criminal Justice System (Berthelot)
    - iii. Medical/Insurance (Balducci)
    - iv. Research (Balducci)
    - v. Taxes (Hughes)
  - c. Federal laws effected by rescheduling
  - d. Nevada laws effected by rescheduling
  - e. Recommendations if cannabis rescheduled as a schedule I controlled substance to a schedule III controlled substance on the federal Controlled Substances Act
2. Descheduling cannabis from the federal Controlled Substances Act by Congress
  - a. Potential effects to Nevada cannabis industry
    - i. Banking (Kline and Britten)
    - ii. Criminal Justice System (Berthelot)
    - iii. Medical/Insurance (Balducci)
    - iv. Research (Balducci)
    - v. Taxes (Hughes)
  - b. Federal laws effected by rescheduling
  - c. Nevada laws effected by rescheduling
  - d. Recommendations if cannabis descheduled from the federal Controlled Substances Act by Congress
3. Descheduling cannabis as a schedule I controlled substance from Nevada's Controlled Substances Act
  - a. Overview of the Nevada scheduling process (Balducci)
  - b. Potential effects to Nevada cannabis industry
    - i. Banking (Kline and Britten)
    - ii. Criminal Justice System (Balducci and Berthelot)
    - iii. Medical/Insurance (Balducci)
    - iv. Research (Balducci)
    - v. Taxes (Hughes)
  - c. Federal laws effected by descheduling
  - d. Nevada laws effected by descheduling
  - e. Recommendations if cannabis descheduled from Nevada's Controlled Substances Act