BEFORE THE CANNABIS COMPLIANCE BOARD
STATE OF NEVADA

STATE OF NEVADA, CANNABIS COMPLIANCE BOARD, Petitioner, Vs. REDWOOD WAREHOUSE LLC (C029) AND MESA OILS LLC (P073), Respondents.	Case No. 2026-018

STIPULATION AND ORDER FOR SETTLEMENT OF DISCIPLINARY ACTION

1. The Cannabis Compliance Board (the "CCB" or the "Board"), by and through its counsel, Aaron D. Ford, Attorney General for the State of Nevada, and Allison L. Herr, Senior Deputy Attorney General enters into this Stipulation and Order for Settlement of Disciplinary Action ("Stipulation and Order") with Respondents Redwood Warehouse LLC, entity number C029; and, Mesa Oils LLC, entity number P073, ("Respondents"), by and through their counsel Amanda Connor of the law firm of Connor & Connor PLLC, (collectively "the parties"). Under the terms of this agreement, the parties stipulate and agree that CCB Case No. 2026-018 (the "Administrative Action") shall be fully and finally settled and resolved upon the terms and conditions set forth below.

PERTINENT FACTS

2. Respondent Redwood Warehouse LLC ("Redwood") is a domestic limited liability company in the State of Nevada formed in 2014, holding a cannabis cultivation license, entity number C029. As a cannabis license holder, Redwood falls under the jurisdiction of the CCB.

3. Respondent Mesa Oils LLC ("Mesa Oils") is a domestic limited liability company in the State of Nevada formed in 2015, holding a cannabis production license, entity number P073. As a cannabis license holder, Mesa Oils falls under CCB jurisdiction.

4. Redwood and Mesa Oils have common ownership, and the companies share some employees.

5. During the calendar years 2024 and 2025, CCB agents issued statements of deficiency[1] ("SOD") and were involved in investigations of Respondent Redwood and its employees. A summary of significant findings is outlined in the paragraphs below:

a. A routine audit commenced on March 14, 2024, and concluded on August 21, 2024. The audit found that staff did not independently perform or reconcile physical inventory counts, leading to variances. Some records were incomplete, inconsistent, or lacked required details.

b. A routine inspection on September 4, 2024, documented the use of an unapproved pesticide on cannabis. The pesticide was applied contrary to manufacturer guidance and Department of Agriculture and CCB statutes and regulations, resulting in the cannabis product being quarantined. Ultimately, affected cannabis and cannabis products were recalled and destroyed by Redwood with authorization from CCB staff.

c. On November 19, 2024, the Southern Nevada Transnational Organized Crime Drug Task Force and the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, assisted by CCB Supervisory Investigator Heather Phillips-Withers, executed a search warrant on the home of Michael Tsairis, an employee of Redwood. Officers recovered materials purported to include 99 live marijuana plants, 179,560 grams of finished marijuana, 27,080 grams of marijuana vape pens, and 1,220 grams of THC extract. Included in the items recovered was a 454-gram bag of cannabis bearing a Redwood METRC tag. The batch number was traced to Redwood product placed on hold due to the quarantine mentioned in paragraph 5b above.

d. An audit investigation was subsequently initiated at the Redwood cultivation facility. Staff review of surveillance video footage revealed Redwood employees Michael Tsairis, Rosa Vargas, and Edgar Figueroa moving cannabis from inside the facility into parked vehicles

[1] The referenced SODs for the cultivation facility, entity number C029, include SOD letters dated (1) August 21, 2024, arising from a routine audit initiated on March 14, 2024, and concluded on August 21, 2024;
(2) September 18, 2024, arising from a routine inspection on August 15, 2024;
(3) September 13, 2024, arising from a routine inspection on September 4, 2024;
(4) November 13, 2024, arising from an inspection conducted on October 16, 2024;
(5) January 28, 2025, arising from an audit investigation initiated on November 19, 2024; and, outside of scheduled hours of operation on five different days between November 8, 2024, and November 14, 2024. CCB Board agents found evidence of tampering with the electronic monitoring system and tampering with the exterior lighting above the exit door. CCB Agents observed interior locations with inadequate camera coverage, resulting in blind spots and blurred or obstructed camera views. Further alert notifications were not configured to detect the security system failures. The lack of security controls is believed to have been a contributing factor that Redwood employees exploited, allowing theft to occur undetected. CCB personnel completed a full inventory of products on-site on November 20 and 21, 2024. The inventory resulted in significant variances. Additionally, Redwood failed to comply with quarantine requirements by not properly labeling and segregating packages placed on administrative hold. Quarantined cannabis packages were found commingled with non-quarantined cannabis without appropriate labeling or a designated quarantine area.
(6) September 18, 2025, arising from a routine inspection on August 15, 2024.

e. A routine inspection of the cultivation facility on August 15, 2025, revealed significant improvement in security and inventory tracking from 2024.

6. During calendar years 2024 and 2025, CCB agents issued Statements of Deficiency[2] ("SODs") to Respondent Mesa Oils. A summary of the significant findings is set forth below:

a. A routine audit commenced in late 2023 and was completed on June 14, 2024. The audit found that staff did not independently perform or reconcile physical inventory counts, leading to variances and discrepancies. Additional staff were not adhering to company policies.

b. An audit of Mesa Oils' production facility was initiated on December 10, 2024. Auditors determined that the facility lacked adequate procedures for reconciling raw materials and finished products, resulting in significant inventory variances. Mesa Oils also failed to maintain adequate records of METRC tag numbers, inventory balances, and production activity, resulting in cannabis packages that could not be properly accounted for.

[2] The referenced SODs for the production facility, entity number P073, include SOD letters dated:
(1) June 14, 2024, arising from an audit started on September 29, 2023, and completed on June 14, 2024;
(2) March 25, 2025, arising from an audit commenced on December 10, 2024, and completed on January 7, 2025; and
(3) December 29, 2025, arising from an inspection on December 19, 2025.

The audit also identified security concerns involving employees Michael Tsairis and Edgar Figueroa, who were present inside the facility outside authorized business hours. A review of security camera footage from November 4 and 5, 2024, showed that at approximately 10:19 p.m. on November 4, Figueroa removed a jar bearing a METRC tag from a freezer, showed it to Tsairis, and placed it on a table. At approximately 10:22 p.m., Figueroa removed three additional jars from the freezer, placed them on the table, and subsequently placed all four jars into a box. At approximately 10:55 p.m., Figueroa removed a bag of cannabis product from a bin located on the floor near the door and placed it on a table. At approximately 11:45 p.m., he removed a package of cannabis product from the table and placed it into a tote located on the floor near the door.

The surveillance recording has gaps between approximately 11:49 p.m. and 11:53 p.m. and again between approximately 12:09 a.m. and 12:18 a.m. At approximately 12:19 a.m. on November 5, Tsairis and Figueroa exited the vault with the tote on a dolly. At approximately 12:22 a.m., Figueroa exited the vault with a box containing five jars bearing METRC tags and placed the box on the dolly. Figueroa then exited the facility with the dolly and moved toward a vehicle. At approximately 12:24 a.m., surveillance footage showed Figueroa loading cannabis product into the vehicle and then returning toward the facility with the dolly, without the tote or jars. At approximately 12:25 a.m., Tsairis and Figueroa exited the facility, entered the vehicle, and departed the premises.

CCB agents also identified evidence of tampering with the electronic monitoring system, including missing surveillance footage. Agents observed inadequate camera coverage in interior areas of the facility, resulting in blind spots and blurred or obstructed views. In addition, the security system was not configured to generate alerts when surveillance-system failures occurred. These deficiencies substantially impaired Mesa Oils' ability to monitor and secure cannabis inventory and created conditions that permitted the apparent unauthorized removal of cannabis product from the facility without timely detection.

c. A routine inspection of the production facility on December 19, 2025, revealed significant improvement in security and inventory tracking from 2024.

7. The Nevada Attorney General's Office notified Redwood and Mesa Oils of its intent to initiate administrative proceedings against Respondents. Since then, the Attorney General's Office, as counsel for the CCB, has entered good-faith settlement negotiations with Redwood and Mesa Oils to resolve the alleged violations without filing a Complaint for Disciplinary Action as codified in NRS 678A.645(1). Redwood and Mesa Oils have agreed to waive the filing and service of a CCB Complaint, and all parties understand and agree that this Stipulation and Order must be approved by a majority vote of the Board members to become effective.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS AND APPLICABLE LAW

8. Respondents are aware of their rights to contest the violations. These rights include representation by an attorney at Respondents' own expense, the right to the filing and service of a disciplinary complaint specifying the charges against Respondents and the right to file an Answer to such complaint, the right to a hearing on any violations or allegations formally filed, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses called to testify against Respondents, the right to present evidence on Respondents' behalf, the right to have witnesses testify on Respondents' behalf, the right to obtain any other type of formal judicial review of this matter, and any other rights which may be accorded to Respondents pursuant to provisions of NRS Chapters 678A through 678D, NRS Chapter 233B, the Nevada Administrative Code (NAC), and any other provisions of Nevada law. Respondents are waiving all these rights by entering into this Stipulation and Order.

9. This Stipulation and Order embodies the entire agreement reached between the CCB and the Respondents. It may not be altered, amended, or modified without the express written consent of the parties, and all alterations, amendments, and/or modifications must be in writing. The parties acknowledge that this agreement applies only to the Respondent companies and is not binding on their mutual former employee, Michael Tsaris.

10. This Stipulation and Order, if approved by the Board, resolves all of the allegations alleged or referenced in this Administrative Action concerning the SODs identified in footnotes 1 & 2. The CCB acknowledges and agrees that no further action will be taken against Respondents for any alleged acts contained in the named SODs.

11. To avoid the cost and uncertainty of a disciplinary hearing, Respondents have agreed to settle these matters. For that purpose and only that purpose, Respondents acknowledge that the facts contained in the paragraphs in the above "Pertinent Facts" section of this Stipulation and Order are true and correct. Without waiving any constitutional rights against self-incrimination, Respondents further acknowledge that certain facts contained in the SODs could be found to constitute violations of Title 56 of NRS (NRS Chapters 678A through 678D), and the NAC, with potential penalties including suspension of license and civil penalties for license C029 and license P073 if these matters proceeded to an administrative hearing.

12. In reaching this agreement, the parties have considered the factors outlined in NAC 678A.510 (formerly NCCR 4.030(2)), including: the gravity of the violations; the economic benefit or savings, if any, resulting from the violations; the size of the business of the violator; the history of compliance with the NAC and Title 56 of NRS by the violator; actions taken to remedy and/or correct the violations; and the effect of the penalty on the ability of the violator to continue in business.

13. The parties have also considered the appropriate mitigating factors under NRS 678A.647 in reaching the proposed settlement of this Administrative Action. Those factors include:

a. Redwood and Mesa Oils voluntarily closed their facilities, to address regulatory concerns, resulting in financial losses in excess of Four million dollars. The cultivation facility had to be cleaned from top to bottom to remove all traces of pesticide; cannabis product was recalled from customers and destroyed. Respondent Redwood missed 24 growth cycles during these remediation efforts.

b. Redwood and Mesa Oils cooperated with CCB staff in formulating and instituting plans of correction to prevent regulatory violations from continuing, including adding new staff, restructuring job duties, engaging in employee training, and involving owners or officers in on-site management.

c. Redwood and Mesa Oils cooperated in the investigation in such a manner as to demonstrate that they accepted responsibility for the violations.

d. Redwood and Mesa Oils cooperated with the CCB's counsel in resolving this matter without the need for a formal Complaint.

Docusign Envelope ID: 8737FF6E-26C7-87A8-8123-D5220E1EF117

e. The settlement terms will increase the Respondents' compliance costs.

14. The parties appropriately weighed each of the mitigating factors, and the parties stipulate and agree to give equal weight to each factor.

15. If the Board approves this Stipulation and Order, it shall be deemed and considered disciplinary action by the CCB against Respondents. It will attach to entity numbers C029 and P073 and to any new owners thereof, but any such change of ownership shall be considered a mitigating factor if there is future disciplinary action against C029 or P073.

16. All parties acknowledge that the CCB has jurisdiction to consider and order this Stipulation and Order because Respondents held privileged licenses regulated by the CCB at all times relevant herein. Respondents expressly, knowingly, and intentionally waive the 14-day and/or 7-day notice requirements contained in the Nevada Open Meeting Law and acknowledge that this Stipulation and Order may be presented to the Board for its consideration and potential ratification at the Board's meeting on October 15, 2026.

STIPULATED ADJUDICATION

17. Based upon the above acknowledgments of the parties and their mutual agreement, the parties stipulate and agree to the imposition of the following terms of discipline in this matter:

a. Violations. Respondent Redwood, entity number C029, admits to committing one (1) Category III violation, using an unauthorized pesticide, in violation of NAC 678A.525(1)(b)(15). Respondent Mesa Oils, entity number P073, admits to committing one (1) Category III violation, failing to follow an approved security plan, in violation of NAC 678A.525(1)(b)(5).

b. Imposition of Civil Penalties. Respondent Redwood shall pay a civil penalty of $20,000.00 under the payment plan outlined in paragraph 17d below. Respondent Mesa Oils shall pay a civil penalty of $5,000.00 under the payment plan outlined in paragraph 17d below.

The parties acknowledge that Redwood's civil penalty amount exceeds the presumed maximum for a first violation under NAC 678A.525(2). However, the presumption may be overcome by agreement of the parties, particularly when, as here, the agreement is based on business concerns, proportionality, and avoidance of greater penalties.

c. Adoption of Institutional Safeguards. Both companies will institute internal spot checks on inventory to be completed by an independent third party in addition to regularly conducted quarterly inventory counts. Additionally, both companies will ensure that separate individuals hold the inventory manager and security manager positions and that security system alerts are delivered to multiple agents, including at least one owner or officer, for at least two years following acceptance of this agreement.

d. Payment of Civil Penalties. Respondents will pay the combined civil penalty of $25,000.00 at a rate of $1250.00 per month until paid in full. The sum of $1,000.00 from each payment shall be credited against Redwood's obligation, and the balance of $250.00 from each payment shall be credited against Mesa Oils obligation. Payment shall be made in equal installments over twenty months, on the tenth day of each month, or, if the tenth day falls on a holiday or weekend, on the first business day thereafter. If the CCB approves this Stipulation and Order at its October 15, 2026, Meeting, Respondents shall make their first monthly payment on November 10, 2026, no later than 5:00 p.m., Pacific Time, under the following schedule:

18. Penalties for Failure to Comply with Payment Deadlines. Respondents acknowledge that complying with the strict payment deadline requirements outlined in this agreement is critical. Should they fail to timely make a payment by the deadline set forth above, the following penalties and procedures will be in effect:

a. CCB will allow a five-business-day grace period for late payment[3].

b. If CCB does not physically receive payment at its Carson City or Las Vegas office by 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time, on the last day of the grace period, Respondents shall be deemed to be in breach of this Stipulation and Order and deemed to be in default. They shall pay all amounts due under this Stipulation and Order, as well as an additional late payment penalty of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00). The CCB shall immediately notify Respondents of the non-payment and give them the right to cure within five days of notice. If the non-payment is not cured, its licenses C029 and P073 shall be immediately suspended, with such suspension remaining in place until all amounts due under this Stipulation and Order are paid in full and within 90 days of the order of default. The CCB will enter an order of default to this effect, and all amounts due under this subsection shall be immediately due and payable to CCB. If all amounts due under this section are not paid within 90 days after the date of the order of default, licenses C029 and P073 shall be deemed voluntarily surrendered. The parties agree they cannot and will not file any petition for judicial review and/or any action in any forum for relief from this order of default and/or this Stipulation and Order, and that the CCB may file any judicial action necessary to recover the amounts owed under this subsection, along with its attorneys' fees and costs for recovery of amounts owed.

[3] If a check or other form of payment is returned for insufficient funds, or otherwise rejected, the failed payment will not be considered a payment and no additional time beyond the five business days grace period will be granted for payment.

c. Respondents may petition the CCB for an extension of 30 days to its monthly payment schedule. However, for the CCB to consider any such petition, the CCB must receive said petition no later than five (5) business days before the payment deadline (which does not include any grace period). The CCB is not required to grant such a petition. In such a petition, Respondents must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the CCB that there are extraordinary and unusual circumstances necessitating the extension requested and specify which installment deadline or deadlines it is seeking an extension for. The CCB may delegate the decision as to whether to grant such a petition to the CCB Chair. Respondents are limited to three requests for an extension.

19. Effect if Approval Denied. Should this Stipulation and Order be rejected by the Board, it is agreed that presentation to and consideration by the Board of this proposed stipulation, or other documents or matters pertaining to the consideration of this Stipulation and Order shall not unfairly or illegally prejudice the Board or any of its members from further participation, consideration, adjudication, and/or resolution of these proceedings, and that no Board member shall be disqualified or challenged for bias. It is further agreed that should the Board deny approval of this Stipulation and Order, the parties and counsel for the CCB will resume settlement negotiations in good faith and attempt to reach an agreement to amend this Stipulation and Order and resubmit an amended Stipulation and Order to the Board for approval at a subsequent regularly scheduled Board meeting. If such an agreement cannot be reached, the parties agree to proceed with the Administrative Action, which shall include the filing and service of a disciplinary Complaint, Respondents' timely Answer and Request for Hearing upon service of the Complaint, and the matter proceeding to a disciplinary hearing before the CCB's assigned hearing officer in the ordinary course. Should the Administrative Action proceed for the reasons set forth in this Paragraph, CCB preserves all its claims and arguments in the Administrative Action, and Respondents preserve all their defenses and arguments they may set forth in their Answer, and withdraw all waivers set forth herein. An unapproved Stipulation and Order shall not be admissible as evidence or referenced in argument at any disciplinary hearing or any other matter involving the CCB.

21. Contingency if Approval Conditioned. If the Board this Stipulation and Order, but said approval is contingent on certain conditions, the parties will undertake further good-faith negotiations to include those conditions in an amended stipulation and order for execution by the CCB Chair. If Respondents do not agree to the certain conditions imposed by the Board, the parties will undertake additional negotiations and attempt to reach an agreement to amend this Stipulation and Order. They will then resubmit an amended stipulation and order to the Board for review and approval at a subsequent regularly scheduled meeting. If such an agreement cannot be reached, those same provisions regarding proceeding with the Administrative Action outlined in the Contingency if Approval Denied section above will apply.

22. Closure of Disciplinary Action. Once this Stipulation and Order is fully performed, the Administrative Action will be closed with prejudice.

23. Communications with Board Members. Respondents understand that this Stipulation and Order will be presented to the Board in open session at a duly noticed and scheduled Board meeting. CCB's counsel, the Nevada Attorney General and its staff attorneys, will recommend approval of this Stipulation and Order. In the course of seeking Board acceptance of this Stipulation and Order, counsel for CCB may communicate directly with individual Board members. Respondents acknowledge that such communications may be made ex parte, and that such contacts and communications may include matters concerning this Stipulation and Order, the Administrative Action, and information related to these matters. Respondents agree that they have no objection to such ex parte communications. The CCB agrees that Respondents and/or their respective counsel may appear at the Board meeting where this Stipulation and Order is discussed and, if requested, respond to any questions that may be addressed to the Nevada Attorney General's staff attorneys. Respondents agree that, should the CCB decline to approve this Stipulation and Order, Respondents will not contest or otherwise object to any Board member, and/or CCB-appointed hearing officer, hearing and adjudicating the Administrative Action based on the aforementioned ex parte communications with anyone from the Nevada Attorney General's Office.

24. Release. Respondents agree that the State of Nevada, the CCB, the Office of the Attorney General, and each of their members, staff, attorneys, investigators, experts, hearing officers, consultants and agents are immune from any liability for any decision or action taken in good faith in response to information and data acquired by the CCB. Respondents agree to release the State of Nevada, the CCB, the Office of the Attorney General, and each of their members, staff, attorneys, investigators, experts, hearing officers, consultants and agents from any manner of actions, causes of action, suits, debts, judgments, executions, claims and demands whatsoever, known or unknown, in law or equity, that Respondents ever had, now has, may have or claim to have against any and/or all of the persons, government agencies or entities named in this Paragraph, arising out of, or by reason of, CCB's investigation of the matters set forth in this Stipulation and Order, and/or the administration of CCB Case No. 2026-018.

25. No Precedent. The CCB may consider the discipline imposed by this Stipulation and Order in any future disciplinary action against Respondents or their assigns as permitted by law, but if the category of violation admitted to in this Stipulation and Order is subsequently lowered, such lower category violation shall be reference for future disciplinary action against Respondents or their assigns. This Stipulation and Order does not constitute precedent or bind the CCB as to the violations charged or discipline imposed in any other matter. Likewise, prior settlement agreements do not bind the CCB in resolving this matter.

26. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph 33, the parties agree to bear their own attorneys' fees and costs.

27. Further Assurances. The parties shall cooperate in executing such additional documents and performing such further acts as may be reasonably necessary to give effect to the purposes and provisions of this Stipulation and Order.

28. Voluntary and Informed Agreement. Respondents acknowledge that they have read and understand this Stipulation and Order, have had the opportunity to consult with counsel of their choosing, and enter into it knowingly and voluntarily, without duress or undue influence.

29. Warranties of Authority. The parties to this Stipulation and Order, and each of them, expressly warrant and represent to all other parties that each has the full right, title, and authority to enter into and to carry out its obligations hereunder, with the sole exception of the required approval of this Stipulation and Order by the Board.

30. Binding Effect. This Stipulation and Order shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and the parties' respective successors, predecessors, parents, affiliates, shareholders, employees, heirs, executors, assigns, and administrators.

31. Construction. Headings are for convenience only and do not affect the interpretation of this Stipulation and Order.

32. Governing Law. This Stipulation and Order shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada, without reference to conflict of law principles.

33. Jurisdiction and Forum Selection. The parties' consent to the jurisdiction of the Eighth Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in the Creditor Action, to resolve any disputes related to the terms or enforcement of this Stipulation and Order. The successful or prevailing party or parties in such action shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees, costs, and expenses actually incurred in initiating or responding to such proceeding, in addition to any other relief to which it may be entitled.

34. Interpretation. This Stipulation and Order was negotiated by the parties and shall not be construed against any party as its drafter.

35. Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence in the performance of all terms of this Stipulation and Order.

36. Severability. If any portion of this Stipulation and Order, or its application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall be deemed to any extent to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable as a matter of law, all remaining clauses of this Stipulation and Order and its application thereof shall not be affected and shall remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

37. Counterparts and Copies. This Stipulation and Order may be executed in counterparts and by electronic signature, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which together constitute one agreement.
